

Annual Conference

Natural Healing: Ecology and Wellbeing

Dewsbury Minster, Rishworth Road, Dewsbury, WF12 8DD

1st March 2023 9.30am – 4pm

(Registration from 9.00am)

Engagement with the healing energies of animals, plants and the natural world; Developing new pathways in mental health care.

Welcome by Marie Burnham, Chair SWYPT

Contributions from:

Mike Gartland 'Pastoral and Spiritual Care'

Dr Elizabeth Ormerod 'Society for Companion Animal Studies'

Angela Barker 'Canine Befrienders'

Dr Bin Johnston 'Our Special Friends'

Jake Radcliffe 'Millington's Magical Barn'

Dr Rebecca Leonardi 'Paws for Progress'

Louise Iredale 'Serenity Wellbeing Gardens'

Gisela Hoyle 'Forest School'

Refreshments and vegetarian lunch included

Registration fee £10 (concessions apply for SWYPT staff)

All fees go to the animal charities represented

For further information and to reserve a place, please email pastoral.care@swyt.nhs.uk

or

Telephone [01924 316282](tel:01924 316282)

Early booking is advisable as places are limited

Spirit in Mind (SIM) is a charity linked to the NHS. SIM works with faith organisations and other partners to develop creative community initiatives in mental health care. 'Natural Healing: Ecology and Wellbeing' is SIM's third annual conference.